HOUSEWIFE DISCOVERS CONSTELLATION
"I was standing on the sidewalk in front of MacDonald's furniture and appliance store, at 732 Fort Street, when I saw this shiny, sphere-shaped object through the window. It was floating on air and it had a long, flexible tail.
"I hurried inside but a young man by the name of George had captured it and was leading it around easily. It followed him like a kitten and purred just as softly.
"When he told me it the much-talked-about Hoover Constellation vacuum—that walks on air—with the double-stretch hose, powerful suction and full-swivel top—and was only $79.50—and only $5.00 down—I just had to take it home with me."
